On 25 June 2024, the International Air Services Commission (the Commission) issued Determination [2024] IASC 113 (the Determination) allocating 2,320 seats of passenger capacity per week to Qantas Airways Limited (Qantas) on the Indonesia route. The Determination includes several conditions including the requirement for the capacity to be utilised no later than 7 November 2024 or such other date approved by the Commission.

On 17 July 2024, Qantas wrote to the Commission seeking an extension of the date for utilisation of the capacity from 7 November 2024 until 28 February 2025. In its letter, Qantas indicated that its wholly-owned subsidiary airline, Jetstar Airways Pty Limited (Jetstar), is in the process of operationalising the allocated capacity into its network. Qantas further outlined Jetstar's planned operations for its daily Cairns-Melbourne-Denpasar (v.v.) services and three times weekly Adelaide-Perth-Denpasar (v.v.) services, to be operated in Northern Winter 2024-25.

As part of its application, Qantas also indicated that due to the time required for the Commission to finalise the Determination, operational requirements such as the re-allocation of the airline's resources and slot processes, have led to the postponement of the commencement dates for some of the proposed services to be operated by Jetstar. The Commission acknowledges that the matter related to the capacity allocation in question had protracted timeframes given the particular issues associated with it, which required more detailed and complex consideration by the Commission.

In light of these circumstances, the Commission issues Resolution [2024] IASC R02 to provide that the capacity allocated under Determination [2024] IASC 113 is to be utilised from no later than 28 February 2025, or such other date approved by the Commission. The Commission will continue to monitor the Qantas Group's ability to fully utilise the capacity issued under the Determination.
